2009 Annual Report: Knowledge for Government Transformation

CTG's 2009 Annual Report covers all the work we accomplished with our government, corporate, and academic partners last year. In addition, articles on open government, social media, IT governance, and XML databases pull together lessons learned along the way and provide new knowledge and practical guidance.

A special thank you to new and old partners alike. The work we do together would not be possible without your commitment to collaboration and innovation.

CTG Announces Project to Develop an Open Government Framework

CTG is beginning work on a new project funded by the National Science Foundation that will support the US General Services Administration's (GSA) new initiatives in citizen services and open government. CTG is working with GSA's Office of Citizen Services and Innovative Technologies to develop an Open Government Framework grounded in the three principles of transparency, collaboration, and participation.
