

CTG Web News Volume XII, Issue 6

Sent: Tue, 04 Aug 2009 01:17 PM

2008 ANNUAL REPORT

Government Worth Having

CTG is pleased to share online with you our 2008 Annual Report. The theme for this year's report, Government Worth Having, is about building a culture of collaboration, sharing information and knowledge, building trust, and breaking down intergovernmental barriers. We invite you to spend some time learning more about our projects, the resulting reports and scholarly works, and the conferences and workshops that CTG contributed to during 2008.

Full report HTML version >><http://www.ctg.albany.edu/publications/annualreports/ar2008?chapter=2>

Full report PDF version >><http://www.ctg.albany.edu/publications/annualreports/ar2008/ar2008.pdf>

PROJECT HIGHLIGHT

Highlights from the 2009 iGov Research Institute in Seattle

The 2009 iGov Research Institute was held in Seattle, WA the week of June 21st. The third annual Institute provided twenty doctoral students from around the world an opportunity to assess the impact of information and communication technologies on the public sector and to understand the value of doing research in an international and multi-cultural context. Academic activities were conducted at the University of Washington, and critical city-related technological challenges were explored in field visits to various city departments, regional organizations, and Microsoft.

View Slide Show >><http://www.ctg.albany.edu/static/igov2009/igov2009.htm>

VERIFY/UPDATE YOUR CONTACT INFORMATION

Within the next week, we will be sending out a request via this CTG Web News distribution list asking you to verify and update your contact information using a form on our CTG Web site.

Please assist us in keeping your information up-to-date. Thank you.