

System Level

This section of the RREC was designed to identify records management requirements associated with the specific technology tools selected for a system implementation.